UNFINISHED BUSINESS

Christmas Program

Marsha Hoctor reported that there are 55 families of 148 kids on the Adopt A Family list. All but 23 kids (7 families) have been adopted. Twenty-six Thanksgiving meals are scheduled to be delivered this Saturday. Canned good donations boxes have been delivered to eleven major locations. Thirty-one coats have been delivered. Marsha contacted 120 new businesses yesterday. Ten kids have been invited to shop with the Community Helper program. Four hundred dollars towards that program has been raised so far; $100 from the Fire Department Union Association, $100 from George Dostie and $200 from Target plus a gift card. Chick-Fil-A is sponsoring the luncheon for the kids. SOS is paying for drinks. John Morrell is donating approximately 20 turkeys.

Julie Matheny said she would talk to Clark Gilhart about advertising for donors on the sign and Cammie Mitrione said she would talk to the people at Maple Knoll about airing a spot on the radio station.

Cammie Mitrione will check with Jerry Thamann about getting food boxes donated from Green Bay Packing.

Susan Wyder said they have wrapping paper at the school that can be used.

TREASURER'S REPORT

Julie Matheny reported there was a beginning balance in the general fund of $7,185.59. There was a payment reversal from WalMart for $35.94 and 61 cents in interest. There were withdrawals of $20.71, $215.64 and $104.82 from WalMart for coats and $403.24 from Meijer's for coats and toys leaving a balance of $6,477.73

The Christmas fund began with a balance of $1,542.53. There were two $150 donations from Kathy McNear and Greg Karle leaving an ending balance of $1,842.53. CinCom has donated $250.
