

Summary of COVID-19 Vaccines

updated 07/2022

Pfizer-BioNTech	Moderna	Johnson & Johnson's Janssen
Who can get this vaccine? People ages 6 months and older	Who can get this vaccine? People ages 6 months and older	Who can get this vaccine? People 18 years and older
Number of Shots Ages 6 months - 4 years: 3 shots (3 weeks between doses 1 and 2, 8 weeks between doses 2 and 3) Ages 5 and up: 2 shots (3 weeks between doses 1 and 2)	Number of Shots 2 shots 4 weeks between doses 1 and 2	Number of Shots 1 shot
When is a person fully vaccinated? 2 weeks after the second shot	When is a person fully vaccinated? 2 weeks after the second shot	When is a person fully vaccinated? 2 weeks after the shot
Additional Dose Recommended for moderately to severely immunocompromised people 4 weeks after second dose	Additional Dose Recommended for moderately to severely immunocompromised people 4 weeks after second dose	Additional Dose Not recommended at this time
Booster Dose Recommended for those 5 years and older Given 5 or more months after second shot	Booster Dose Recommended for those 18 years and older Given 5 or more months after second shot	Booster Dose Recommended for those 18 years and older Given 5 or more months after first shot
Second Booster Dose Recommended for adults ages 50 and older or immunocompromised individuals ages 12 and older  Given 4 or more months after initial booster dose	Second Booster Dose Recommended for adults ages 50 and older or immunocompromised individuals ages 12 and older  Given 4 or more months after the initial booster dose	Second Booster Dose mRNA booster (Pfizer-BioNTech or Moderna) recommended if Johnson &amp; Johnson's Janssen was received for initial and first booster doses  Given 4 or more months after initial booster dose